Judith Plaskow: Feminism, Theology, and Justice (Library of Contemporary Jewish Philosophers) From Brill

Judith Plaskow, Professor of Religious Studies Emerita at Manhattan College in New York, is a leading Jewish feminist theologian. She has forged a revolutionary vision of Judaism as an egalitarian religion and has argued for the inclusion of sexually marginalized groups in society in general and in Jewish society in particular. Rooted in the experience of women, her feminist Jewish theology reflects the impact of several philosophical strands, including hermeneutics, dialogical philosophy, critical theory, and process philosophy. Most active in the American Academy of Religion, she has shaped the academic discourse on women in religion while critiquing Christian feminism for lingering forms of anti-Judaism.

Latoya Jones:

As a university student exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library or to make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's spirit or real their pastime. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring and can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Judith Plaskow: Feminism, Theology, and Justice (Library of Contemporary Jewish Philosophers) can make you experience more interested to read.
