From the Inside Flap

This seemingly simple 32-page storybook has touched the hearts of children and adults across the country. It's a bestselling gift book for children, grandchildren, mothers and grandmothers!

The special cedar chest that's part of the story has also inspired the new heirloom-quality Lane Something to Remember Me By Cedar Chest -- a keepsake itself and a treasured gift for all occasions.

And the book has led to a national community service initiative, the "Something to Remember Me By" Legacy Project at somethingtoremembermeby.org. The Legacy Project offers free intergenerational activity kits to bring generations closer together (for Mother's Day, Grandparents Day, The Holidays, and more), contests, and workshops for families, schools, and community groups.

Something to Remember Me By is a little book that's inspiring young and old in big ways!
