Editorial Review

Review

"Habermas's monumental Theory of Communicative Action, considered by many the summa of his remarkable career, engendered an intense international debate. Many of the most trenchant contributions have been judiciously assembled by Axel Honneth and Hans Joas for this volume, which concludes with yet another of Habermas's vigorous and thoughtful replies to his critics. The result is a book that is not merely about communicative action, but also its very embodiment."
