Dinner Ladies (Screen and Cinema) By Victoria Wood

The complete texts with photographs of the first series of Victoria Wood's hit BBC sitcom dinnerladies. Includes a behind the scenes look at the making of the series

The book includes scripts and illustrations from the first series of Dinnerladies, plus new writing by Victoria Wood. Dinnerladies is about five women who work in the canteen of a factory outside Manchester. They come to work, they put on their overalls, they fanny about with their bean tins, they serve the dinners, they wash up, they go home. But within that daily routine they bicker, fall out, run into the toilet crying, plan romances, weigh themselves, fantasise, and try and read the telly pages without their glasses. Bren (Victoria Wood) is the strong centre of the group. She actually enjoys scraping bits of dinner into plastic dustbins. The only bluebottle in her custard is her mother Petula Gordeno (Julie Walters). And, oh what a mother! Serving alongside Bren are Jean, Dolly, Anita and Twinkle, the other dinnerladies. Plus Tony and Stan, the men who make life interesting.

This dinnerladies book takes you inside the canteen and the making of a Victoria Wood's new sitcom. It includes not just the scripts for the first series but all the candid banter plus Victoria Wood's own candid snaps taken on the set.

Debra Palacios:

As a student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or even make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's soul or real their hobby. They just do what the educator want, like asked to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring and can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Dinner Ladies (Screen and Cinema) can make you really feel more interested to read.
