On Death and Dying: Ending, Continuing, or Awakening? By Kenneth Wapnick

This 19-CD set (20 hrs. 44 mins.) of a five-day 2011 Academy class on A Course in Miracles, with the seminar "Peace to Such Foolishness!" as a prelude, has as its principal theme our identity in the dream as bodies. Based on Jesus' urging not to confuse symbols with source (T-19.IV-C.11:2), the class discusses death as being a thought in the decision-making mind, independent of what seems to occur in the projected body. What prepares us for physical death is the daily practice of right-mindedly choosing the Holy Spirit's forgiveness as our life's meaning, rather than the ego's judgments and attacks. In this way, physical death becomes a joyous end to a classroom of learning, not a punishment for sin.
