Editorial Review

Review

‘a useful little handbook with some easy-to-access basic information’ Irish Democrat

‘a brief and helpful introduction to the Troubles. . . . The Volume’s great value is that it offers a lucidly and lightly written, short introduction to a subject that will continue to haunt many people for a very long time’ TLS

‘a masterly feat of compression . . . excellent on the paradoxes of political developments since the ceasefires.’ Financial Times

‘Mulholland writes with unusual sensitivity and fairness. He understands the problem: in Northern Ireland, neither Nationalist nor Unionist feels they may rest easy.’ Paul Bew, Queen’s University Belfast
