A killer far worse than insane.

Chris Wilcox has been searching for years, so he knows a few things about his wife's killer. Cheryl Wilcox wasn't the first. All the victims were redheads. All eaten alive and left within a mile of the ocean. The trail of death crosses the globe and spans decades.

The cold trail catches fire when Chris and two other survivors find a trace of the killer's DNA. By hiring a cutting-edge lab to sequence it, they make a terrifying discovery. The killer is far more dangerous than they ever guessed. And now they're being hunted by their own prey.

—Jay Bonansinga, New York Times bestselling author of Frozen, Shattered, and co-author of The Walking Dead: Road to Woodbury

"Redheads is a remarkable debut thriller that drew me in and wouldn't let go until the final page. Moore writes like a pro. The characters are real, the dialogue is slick, the action is fast and perfectly crafted and the story is highly cinematic. I predict we're going to be hearing a lot from this major new talent."

—Glenn Cooper, Internationally bestselling author of Library of the Dead, Book of Souls and other thrillers.
