Weimar Lugers By Jan C. Still

A new classic book prepared with the help of the world renowned members of the National Automatic Pistol Collectors Association. It contains information and photographs from the world's most important Luger collections. Covered in detail with much new information are the Army, Navy and police Lugers of Weimar Germany, their holsters, magazines, loading tools, cleaning rods, conversion units and literature. Imperial and Weimar Lugers reworked during the Nazi Era, Weimar commercial Lugers and Dutch Lugers are also covered. New historic information and the turmoil of the Weimar and Early Nazi Eras are related directly to the production of Lugers at DWM, BKIW and Mauser. Weimar Era Lugers remained in service during the Nazi Era and were used by the German military and police during World War II. Over 130 Luger variations are described with text and over 550 photos.

Editorial Review

Review

Finally someone has taken a serious look at the truly unique arena of the Weimar Era Lugers. Although ever present, this group of mysterious Lugers has caused confusion and conflict among the collecting fraternity. This book points out the historic importance of these Lugers and brings order out of chaos with the practical application of new documentation to observed data. Weimar Era Lugers hold a distinct place of importance to any serious collector of German arms. Each pistol has its own character and many have a rich history. Jan Still has added yet another classic to his fabulous series of reference works. -- From the Publisher

About the Author

Jan C. Still has collected and researched German pistols for the last 30 years. He is the world's authority on German pistols from World War I and World War II. He has researched the guns' history, markings, manufacture and use in battle and over the years has collected many historic photos and pictures. He has photographed some of the most important gun collections in the country. As a member of NAPCA (National Automatic Pistol Collectors' Association) he continues to be involved in dialog with the pistol collecting community.
